Newbies who take out Plusnet's line rental can get Unlimited Broadband for just £2.49/mth (you'll need its line rental too) on a 12-month contract, and get £50 cashback as well, via our special link.

The deal's running until Tue 8 Jul. Here's how it works:

- ▶ Unlimited broadband. It's £2.49/mth - a total of £29.88 for the year.
- ▶ Compulsory line rental. You pay £15.95/mth. But we suggest, if you can afford it, you opt to pay £155.88 upfront for the year (equivalent to £12.99/mth), as part of the online sign-up.
- ▶ Weekend calls. Weekend calls to landlines if you pay monthly, none if you take the upfront line rental option.
- ▶ £50 cashback. Provided you've used the link above and not gone direct, you'll get a £50 cheque 60 days after your broadband connection is live.

Analysis: This smashes standard deals where you often pay £300+/yr

With broadband, different companies use different promotional formats. So we like to help you make a fair comparison.

The following analysis excludes call costs, as they depend on you as an individual. If you don't have a router, you can get one free, but you'll pay £5.99 p&p.

- ▶ If you pay line rental upfront. The total broadband and line rental cost for the first year is £185.76, equivalent to £15.48/mth. Plus you'll get the £50 cashback. If you factor that in,
